

Coats For Kids/ Pythians Provide for Those In Need

December 6, 2014

by Sir Lloyd Merson, PDSC

Its December 6, 2014, nine o'clock in the morning and over 1,000 coats are waiting for us. The Knights of Pythias Coats For Kids/Those In Need Committee collected more than 10 large bags of coats Saturday, December 6, 2014

The committee, begun the Winter of 1996, represents one of many altruistic endeavors of the Knights of Pythias. From its inception 18 years ago through today the Knights and the committee donated tens of thousands of coats to those in need.

The offerings of coats from countless numbers of generous people year after year is astonishing. Most of the coats come from our friends in the area of the Plainedge and Bethpage. Coats are collected at various schools and businesses and brought to a central place, The John West School in Bethpage, NY.

The coordinators for the collection, Joan and Jack Geagen separate sizes and genders and bag each coat.

Every year Joan, Jack and their volunteers have the coats assembled and ready to go.

All these coats and those donated by the Knights of Pythias and Pythian Sisters get delivered by members of the Knights of Pythias and Pythian Sisters to those in need.

Past Deputy Supreme Chancellor Sir Lloyd Merson and Past Chief Deputy Grand Chancellor Sir Ronald Klare lead this committee. Nassau County public officials also joined the Pythians volunteers to express their support.

The Pythians donate coats to organizations on Long Island, in all five boroughs, Westchester County and as far as Monroe, New York. Recipients of these coats and other items of clothing collected by Pythians include shelters for the homeless, churches, schools, and veteran groups.

“Helping our fellow citizens to get through the winter a bit warmer is a blessing,” stated Merson. “The Knights of Pythias, Joan and Jack Geagen, volunteers and those who donated their coats truly believe in the motto of the Pythian Order: Friendship, Charity and Benevolence.”
