

The Grand Lodge held its investiture Thursday, July 27 at John Malone Community Center in Brooklyn, NY. Thanks to Pythian Sister Susan Master, the Canarsie Courier covered the event. Below find an excerpt of the article found on on line (see link below). On on about August 17, find the entire article on line.

Canarsie Courier

A Quite Knightly Event

By Jason Linetsky

“We have a great reason to take pride in being a Pythian and to feel excited and energized,” stated Hon. Phillip Feigel, Grand Chancellor of the Knights of Pythias' Domain of New York Grand Lodge and Flatlands resident. More...

017-08-03 / Other News

By Jason Linetsky

“We have a great reason to take pride in being a Pythian and to feel excited and energized,” stated Hon. Phillip Feigel, Grand Chancellor of the Knights of Pythias' Domain of New York Grand Lodge and Flatlands resident.

You must be an online subscriber to view this story.

The full version of this story will be available to all readers after 2 weeks.

Full versions of news stories from the 2 most current weeks are available to online subscribers only. Access to full versions of news stories from issues older than 2 weeks are available to all readers for free in our archive of all issues.

http://www.canarsiecourier.com/news/2017-08-03/Other_News/A_Quite_Knightly_Event.html

View pictures from the Investiture.